THE CHRIST SCHOOL
Orlando, Florida

Head of School
July 1, 2017

The Christ School (TCS) seeks a Head of School to succeed its well-regarded current head who will complete eleven years of leadership at the end of the current school year (June 2017). Founded in 1996 as an independent school serving students from transitional kindergarten through 8th grade in downtown Orlando, The Christ School has enjoyed stability in leadership, reputation, and programs throughout its history. The school is governed by an independent board of trustees, enrolls 375 students, and is located on the campus of First Presbyterian Church, with whom it enjoys a collegial relationship. The Florida Council of Independent Schools (FCIS) and Christian Schools of Florida (CSF) accredit the Christ School. Membership in the Council on Educational Standards and Accountability (CESA) is in process and anticipated during the course of this school year. The Christ School provides a rigorous academic education with a distinctly Christian worldview. The school has an open enrollment policy. The Christ School is seeking a leader who will lead the school into its next phase of development, building on the progress of recent years. The school enjoys a dedicated faculty, supportive parents, and an admirable student body.

The Head of School is the Chief Executive Officer, the academic and spiritual leader of the school, and reports to the independent board of trustees. The Head is expected to build upon the existing strengths of The Christ School and to provide strategic, visionary leadership as the school enters the next phase of its development. Key traits of the right candidate include a demonstrated Christian faith, strong relational and team-building skills, and experience and competence in articulating and implementing a strong vision for the school. Compensation is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience.

For more information access the school website: thechristschool.org. Applicants send letter of interest, current resume (with no time gaps), four references (which will not be checked until permission is granted), statement of educational philosophy, and statement articulating your personal Christian faith and practices, as Word documents (.doc) or pdf file, to search consultant. Application deadline is October 28, 2016. For Opportunity Profile, to inquire, or make a referral contact:
